

INDIGENOUS RECOGNITION in the AUSTRALIAN CONSTITUTION

FOURTEENTH ASSEMBLY, UNITING CHURCH IN AUSTRALIA
Resolution 15.22.02

15.22.02 The Assembly resolved to:

- a) note the comment in the Congress report that there is a diverse set of views within Congress regarding Recognition in the Constitution;
- b) continue to support Recognition as long as the form of recognition offered can be seen as a step towards and not a blockage to the larger issues of sovereignty and treaty; and
- c) commit to work with Congress to educate members of the Church about the need for a treaty.(Agreement)
