

FALKLAND ISLANDS CONFLICT

THIRD ASSEMBLY, UNITING CHURCH IN AUSTRALIA
RESOLUTION 82.56

82.56

It was resolved that the Assembly:

- 1) express deep sorrow at the tragic loss of life which has already occurred in the Falkland Islands conflict;
- 2) regrets the manner in which some sections of the Australian media have glamourised the conflict;
- 3) draw the attention of the Australian people to the way in which the incident has escalated and that this is a warning of how easily a third world war could begin, therefore necessitating even more attention to ending the arms race;
- 4) request the Australian Government not to be involved politically or militarily in the conflict and, instead, to devote its efforts to work for a settlement of the dispute by the United Nations.
